

The University of Arizona & Fair Wheel Bikes present:

A Weekend Omnium in Tucson including the UofA Criterium & Tumacacori Road Race!

Held under USCF Permit # (pending)

March 15-16, 2008! This year we are expanding our offering to combine the UofA criterium and the Tumacacori road race into an omnium format. Come to Tucson, warm up with the Saturday morning shootout, followed by an exciting criterium. Finish it up on Sunday with the most difficult one day road race in the state.

This one-day road race is on a circuit course known as "The Old Districts' Course" 58 miles south of Tucson, Arizona. The race winds around a 6-mile loop with climbs, rollers, descents and corners, providing 460 feet of vertical climbing per lap. A King/Queen of the Mountain prize will be announced for the second wave fields at the start line.

* Junior men and women race together and are scored separately.

YOU MAY REGISTER FOR THE OMNIUM AT THE UOA CRIT, OR JUST REGISTER FOR THE ROAD RACE that day also. You may pick up your race number for Tumacacori at the Crit or starting 6:00am at the Tumacacori Road Race as well. Checks for UOA Crit or Tumacacori Road Race should be made out to Alicia Heiserer.

You can also register for the Tucson Bicycle Classic at the UOA CRIT OR AT TUMACACORI ROAD RACE ALSO. Checks for Tucson Bicycle Classic should be made out to Tucson Bicycle Classic.

Check In and Onsite registration opens at 6:00 AM. Criterium registration closes 30 minutes prior to event. Road race registration closes as listed.
